Objectives of the Movement

- Keeping the Canadian church abreast of global developments in missional work.
 - Missional – not the industry
- Fostering co-operation and partnerships in the missional work of the church.
- Promoting conversation and facilitating active response in important areas of concern in the missional task of the church.
- Providing venues in which missional issues facing the church in Canada and the global community can be explored
- Developing resources that will inform and strengthen our understanding of the missional task for both the Canadian and the global community.
- Encouraging persistent prayer for and involvement in Kingdom work locally and globally.
- Identifying young leaders committed to the missional calling of the church.
